

Oregon Self Advocacy Coalition

Regional Self-Advocate Representative Contract Position

Summary

OSAC has a contract with the Office of Developmental Disability Services (ODDS) to engage self-advocates from around the state in policy advocacy and conversations with ODDS. As a result, OSAC is developing four regional teams to build connections and get people involved. Each team will be made up of two people, a Regional Self-Advocate Representative and a Community Connector.

Contract period: December 1, 2019 – November 30, 2020

Regional Self-Advocate Representative Contractor Duties

- Participate in required trainings, required monthly check-in calls or meetings as requested.
- Work with regional Community Connector to complete assigned activities and develop local action plans.
- Engage OSAC members, groups and others located in your region to carry out local action plans.
- Educate self-advocates and others about issues, legislation and policies that impact the lives of people with IDD.
- Gather information from self-advocates regarding regional issues to share with OSAC and ODDS leaders.
- Develop relationships with disability and non-disability businesses and organizations in your region.
- Recruit members for OSAC and support local self-advocacy groups.
- Identify emerging self-advocate leaders.
- Use social media to share activities and accomplishments.
- Submit monthly invoice reports to get paid.

Qualifications of Regional Teams

Regional team members must:

- Have valid driver's license and current auto insurance (if you drive a car).
- Have access to reliable transportation.
- Have access to communication by phone, computer, email and social media.
- Be able to work a flexible schedule.
- Demonstrate the ability to follow through on assigned tasks and ask for help when needed.
- Enjoy talking to people and working with the public.
- Be comfortable talking to people they don't know.
